There are landings on the creek and river, and the Railroad passes by the Plantation, affording every facility for getting wood and produce to market. It is well supplied with buildings requisite for the cultivation of a farm, and there is no doubt that an industrious and intelligent planter could make it one of the most valuable places on the river. DLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE AND THE BRITISH B QUARTERLY REVIEWS .- Owing to the late revoluions and counter-revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet," the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treatises to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the old world, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American Publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they re-publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW. THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately, though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three great parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical—"Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory; the "Edinburgh Re-view" Whig; and the "Westminster Review" Liberal.— The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ullast great ecclesisatical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge; it was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it heigh in fact a union of the two Bayings formally ster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both as heretofore issued. The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals, Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile For any one of the four Reviews $3 00 per annum. For any two 5 00 For Blackwood's Magazine 3 00 For Blackwood and three Reviews..... For Blackwood and the four Reviews 10 00 " Payments to be made in all cases in advance.

Clubbing-Four copies of any or all of the above works will be sent to one address on payment of the regular subscription for three—the fourth copy being gratis.

Remittances and communications should be always addressed, post-paid or franked, to the Publishers.
